1 light cavalry unit (seasoned)
2 heavy cavalry unit (veteran)
1 medium artillery unit 8lb (seasoned)

For this scenario to function only the balance between Davout and the Austrians is important. His corps is a real but manageable threat. The French off board forces are by design too much to handle.

B Battlefield:

C. Scenario rules and timeline:

Austrian troops and the French II. Corps are set up as shown. Start point: 13 o'clock.

Acceptable Austrian losses: 1-2 = 20%, 3-4 = 30%, 5-6 = 40% (Victory condition)

The meadow fields east of Schierling are difficult ground. (Could qualify as swampy.)

13 o'clock

End of the French movement: French Vanguard arrives on the south edge of the table

D6 roll 1-3 = 2 units per corps, 4-6 = 3 units per corps.

Behaviour: 1-2 = probing advance, no assault, 3-6 = aggressive advance

14 o'clock

Messenger of Archduke Charles: D6

1-2 = disengage order received, 3-6 = message delayed till 15 o'clock

Main army starts to deploy. Roll for each wave or deploy when "available".

15 o'clock

French troops crossed the Große Laaber (river) in the east and can now deploy on the north side of the river (north Massena position).

19 o'clock

Sunset, the battle ends.
